

Principal Medical Writer

Location: Altrincham, Cheshire

Salary: Competitive

Requirements: Life Sciences PhD, at least 5 years' relevant editorial experience

Job type: Permanent

Alpharmaxim Healthcare Communications is looking for a Principal Medical Writer to fulfil a varied and interesting role as part of a talented team.

The role

To provide high-level scientific and technical consultancy services, both internally and externally, through leading strategic and editorial development, and coordinating the implementation of client communication programmes with a focus on deliverables (including key messages, content and overall quality of all materials). This role has a 100% writing/editorial focus, and will concentrate on writing, reviewing, mentoring and leading projects/small accounts from the editorial side. The analysis and interpretation of complex scientific/technical data, and the ability to confidently translate those skills within the working environment (both internal and external) is essential for this role.

The company

Alpharmaxim provides strategic and tactical marketing and communication support to a broad range of clients across the pharmaceutical, biotech, medical device, diagnostic and vaccine sectors. As a small and dynamic company, we are able to offer unusually varied and flexible job opportunities that are tailored to the particular strengths of applicants.
